Availability slips

For those of you not on email, availability slips for the next three months duties are now in the pigeon holes in the Cloister. Please pick yours up today.

We have a severe shortage of availability in certain areas because many people only tick a couple of dates during the three months. So if you are able to tick as many Sundays as you can, to give me a better chance of spreading the load across lots of people, rather than having to call upon the same few people who always give lots of availability, this will work out fairer and there should be a better spread of people sharing duties.

NB: Ticking more dates does not necessarily mean you'll be called upon to do more – it just means I have more people to juggle with!

Many thanks for your continued support and help.

Jo Naunton

During the summer break instead of Sunday Clubs there will be a DVD set up in the Jubilee Hall, and the Pauling Room will be available for use but parents will need to be responsible for their own children. We will be kicking off the new term in September. Have a great summer!

VOCATIONS DAY on Saturday 30th September, from 10am till 4pm, at St Peter's, Brighton.

I remember very clearly the first time I sensed an undeniable feeling of being called. It was at the very first New Wine summer camp. I sat enthralled as the speaker brought the bible alive in a way I had never experienced before. I knew at that moment I was called in some yet undefined way to communicate to others the grace and love of God.

I was just 21 with a criminal record and no form of higher education to my name. Hardly a great CV I thought until I started reading about the likes of Peter and Paul in the bible and realising that there was much to disqualify them too! The reality is, if we are called, God will always find a way of using us. The important thing I discovered was to find ways of exploring that calling.

For me, initially at least, that didn't mean being 'collared'. Ordination seemed too great a step and besides which I loved my job which gave me access, at the time, to so many more people who didn't know Jesus. Reader ministry, which involved training alongside my day to day work, gave me the chance to both expand my bible knowledge and to continue reaching out to those I worked alongside. Readers I discovered (we have several at St John's) are a vital bridge in any parish between the clergy and the congregation. I loved this ministry and after eight years it would prove the springboard to realising that God was calling me to the priesthood.

What about you? What shape is your calling? How are you exploring what your ministry is?

If you have ever asked yourselves these questions or in reading them today you sense the Holy Spirit prompting you to explore this further then can I encourage you to 'lean on the door'.

The diocese are putting on a special day to look into different forms of ministry opportunities - be that licensed, ordained or authorised ministry of some kind (including reader ministry), or some form of chaplaincy, spiritual direction, youth work, or pastoral help.

Bishop Martin will open the Day, giving his vision for ministry in the Diocese. And there'll be:

- a 'free lunch';
  - presentations on listening to God and the latest thoughts on ministry from the Church;
  - more information about the 'Living Faith' course;
  - workshops exploring ordained and lay ministries together with religious life;
  - representatives from many different forms of ministry;
  - people to speak to about training;
- and above all, there'll be opportunities to network, get more information, and meet others thinking similarly.

If you would like to know more about the day and start your own journey into exploring your calling speak to Jill or myself.

Your partner in the Gospel, Giles.

For more details please complete one of the Welcome cards (usually available in the pews) and return it to one of our welcome team.

Another way in which we like to reach people is through our 'Keeping In Touch' email list. To be included in the mailing list please sign one of the forms on the Welcome Desk. You'll then receive regular updates and news.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

With immediate effect the main door to the Jubilee Hall and church office has been activated with a security intercom system. This means that during office hours Monday to Friday, the main door will not be 'open'. You must press the button on the silver box located on the right hand side of the main doors and wait for someone in the office to remotely unlock the door for you. To exit through the same doors you need to press the green button on the wall - which is signposted.

Also a reminder that if you have a key to the big brown main doors of the church (a blue key), the same key will open the security door situated between the Vestry and the church office.

Any queries, please speak to Jo in the office.

Kingdom Come

Thy Kingdom Come was a wonderful event marked by Anglican churches and others throughout the world at the invitation of the Archbishops of Canterbury and York. In Eastbourne members of more than 22 churches gathered at Kings Church, Hampden Park, to worship and pray for our town. Our vicar, Giles, led the hundreds who gathered as we celebrated communion together. It was a significant evening and so encouraging to be there.

To keep the prayer momentum going, the next Kingdom Come event will be Saturday 23 September at 7.30pm at New Hope Church, Beach Road, Eastbourne. Kingdom Come is a twice yearly event of prayer and worship for Eastbourne, organised by a group of local Christians from different churches. This is the sixth Kingdom Come event so far. Kingdom Come enjoys the support of Churches Together in Eastbourne.

What is Living Faith?

Living Faith is a part-time course spread over three terms. It is designed to help people find and grow in the discipleship to which God is calling them. The course was developed in the Diocese of Chester and has been run there successfully for many years.

Who is it for?

Living Faith is for lots of different kinds of lay people who want to serve God in the church and in the world. People may go on the Living Faith course to explore many different kinds of Christian ministry:

- Serving God where they are at work, in the family, in the community
- Roles within the church (children's work, youth work, music ministry, churchwardens, PCC members, pastoral work, administration and more)
- Ordained ministry
- Licensed lay ministry (Readers, Church Army)
- Authorised Lay Ministry (Living Faith is the first year of the Authorised Lay Ministry training course)

Who can apply?

The course is open to anyone who wants to grow and develop in Christian discipleship and ministry. It is not a basics course, so we expect participants to have some background in Christian life and thinking.

How to apply

Application forms can be obtained from the Apostolic Life office at Church House. These need to be returned, with payment, by October 1st 2017.

The course costs £40 for those in receipt of a wage and is free to the unwaged and students. In 2017 we are offering 10 free places, one person per parish on a first come first served basis.

Leaflets with more information about the course are available at the back of church, or speak to Giles.
